The name "Peleg" means 'divided'; it has also been translated 'streams' (8x NASB). Walt Brown makes an excellent case that as the continents settled down after the flood, the waters rose and cut off the land bridges, thus dividing the earth. (See Bibliography, Brown :254).

An additional meaning (given in Seder Olam) is that his name was given prophetically, and that it refers to the division at the tower of Babel.

The popular theory that the word refers to the division of the languages at the beginning of Peleg's life cannot be correct, because the population would not be great enough 101 years after the flood. On the other hand, it can refer to a prophetic division of the nations upon his death. Thus the earth was divided geographically at his birth, and ethnically at his death.

KJV Genesis 11:16 And Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat Peleg: 17 And Eber lived after he begat Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.
