false god Janus. It is the same false god. The synagogue of Satan is in the Vatican, but it is also the institution of Rabbinical Authority. One side of this false god looks like a Jewish Rabbi, and the other side like a Catholic bishop. This false god is united in its opposition to Yeshua and to the Torah that Yeshua upholds, not only in practice, but in the manner in which he fulfilled the times and seasons.

The way around these false authorities is to learn not to believe their sources because of their conflict of interest. Only true linguistic sources without a clear conflict of interest can be regarded as valid—and I mean contemporary Greek and Hebrew sources from before the destruction of the Temple (A.D. 70). So like the reformers John Wycliffe and William Tyndale, it is necessary to obtain one's Greek and Hebrew from the most unbiased source as possible. That is the principle of the matter.

The reformers had to rely on Rabbinic Jews for their Hebrew and on Byzantine Church scholars of Greek from Constantinople that was destroyed by the Muslims in A.D. 1453. So it is not surprising that they did not detect the error in rendering $\mu\acute{\iota}\tilde{\alpha}\ \tau\acute{\omega}\nu\ \sigma\alpha\beta\beta\acute{\alpha}\tau\omega\nu$ as “first day from the Sabbath.” They did not have the tools to get behind these sources and check them out on an independent basis.

Today we do. The Rabbis and Bishops have been compelled to publish many sources of Greek and Hebrew that were before unavailable. And when something is unavailable, people tend to trust what is: Rabbinic or Church pronouncements.

The key here is to ensure that all the Scriptural sources are taken literally and the mistakes corrected on an independent basis without relying on later sources or authorities which have become corrupt. When this is done the whole chronology of Scripture comes together. When the keystone of knowledge from Yeshua is locked into place, then all the pieces of the temple align themselves exposing the lies of our fathers.

So like the reformers, we must go behind the Church of Rome, and like the few Jews who come out of Judaism, we must realize that when it comes to Yeshua and his fulfillment of Scripture that the Rabbis cannot be trusted.

The Church launched the counter reformation against the reformers, and they step by step subverted the gains of the reformers. At the start, it was not a counter attack of reason and superior evidence. Rather it was a program of war, assassination, and political subversion, bribery, murder, and religious coercion. No sooner had the Protestants discovered a little truth than they found themselves in a total war for their lives with the Church of Rome. Therefore, there was little time to pursue the depths of deception of the Church. It was a luxury that they had no time for since Rome was insisting on winning the argument with the sword.

When the Protestants finally won some victories, they were all too ready to compromise and seek a middle way of peace with Rome rather than continue to risk further bloody war. This practical peace however resulted in a laziness of mind for digging deeper and exposing all the iniquities of Rome. Along with their zeal for suffering the Protestants slowly lost their zeal for the truth.

So the second reason Rome succeed with this counter attack is that the descendents of the reformers have lost their scientific inquiry and have started trusting conflicted human sources again. When it comes to deception, freedom from it can only come through independent confirmation of a truth, and not through acceptance based on authority of what the other side says.

They are few indeed that can examine an issue while suspending all of the assumptions and emotional attachments to the opinions¹⁵⁵ of their forbearers. I am one of the few with this gift, or a greater measure of it. However I realize that it will take the Spirit of Yahweh to cut the emotional chains of bondage. These emotional shackles are more powerful than any logical argument, and I'd have no hope of anyone overcoming them except for one thing: the Almighty has a plan to redeem Israel and to restore the truth of Messiah and Torah.

So there is a counter reformation going on right now against the ¹⁵⁵ I mean those opinions with a clear conflict of interest. If a more logical and scientific position holds together against a traditional position, and the traditional position is a support in the system of lies against Yeshua or Torah, then it must be assigned no weight in determining the truth. We need not become universal skeptics who are people who doubt everything. We need not doubt the fact that Yeshua was a Jew or that the four Evangelists wrote the gospels. We need not become liberal doubters of everything.
